

From: cortath@juno.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/28/02 1:18pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I believe that the Federal Government and all other State governments should now leave Microsoft alone. The court has made it s decision and now we should move on to more important things. Just because the competition is jealous that they did not invent the same things as those working for Microsoft is no reason that they should have any right to capitalize on the hard work of another. I say move on there are more important problems to plague this country. Deal with them.